Business Examples – Any Business TeamsWin Information Heavylifting for Any Business

Copyright © 12/07/07 by Robert D. Pace

The purpose of this document is to present some common business examples to show how you may use TeamsWin Information Heavylifting. While you look at these business examples, imagine how their characteristics are organized in reports, maps, catalogs, etc. Then imagine those schemes associated. In other words, imagine all the types and subtypes you need in order to understand a business, and how the owner mentally associates those structures. The way he sets up his reports shows us how the owner associates those structures. This document does not say any more about strategic entity organization for these example businesses, but use your imagination. This is a list of common business examples.
